EVERYTHING YOU NEED TO KNOW ABOUT 'LA EATS'

This year our Big Night Out will feature a restaurant tasting. Eight restaurants will be represented, offering a gorgeous sampling of why LA is one of the most culinary diverse cities. Along with music, silent auction, live auction and a mega-affle, it is a recipe for a super-fabulous evening!

- BUY TICKETS! COME TO 'LA EATS', BRING FRIENDS AND HAVE A GREAT TIME.

We have so many reasons to celebrate and our new Media Center location is the perfect venue for an epic party. A bigger event will be more fun and ultimately a bigger success, so bring some friends. Buy Preview Party tickets and enjoy the open bar from 6 to 7. When you receive your invitation, you will be able to visit the auction website to buy your tickets and to donate money towards a teacher ticket.

- KNOW A RESTAURANT THAT WOULD LIKE TO PARTICIPATE?

There are a few restaurant spaces left. Contact Jode Mann for more information. jodefk@sbcglobal.net

- GET DONATION ITEMS.

Make a personal goal to get three donations for the auction. The more auction items we have, the more great things there will be to win (and good deals to be had!), and the more money we can raise for arts-integrated public education. The deadline to bring in auction items is May 13. Ask your favorite restaurant or store. Donate your own talents like tutoring or yoga lessons. Maybe you have a pool and can lend your backyard for a few hours? Love to bake? Offer to make cupcakes for a kids' party. Call your favorite hotel, bar or business...let's all help the Donations Committee! So far, some items that will be auctioned are a weekend in Palm Springs, a wooden Thomas toy chest and sessions for Botox. To download more donation letters and donation forms, go to our website: www.losfelizarts.org. For donation help, contact the Donations Chair: Sharon Reilly sharonreilly@gmail.com.

- PARTICIPATE BY VOLUNTEERING FOR A SHIFT.

Working at the party sounds like a drag but it is actually fun...and like every school event, we need to pull together to make it happen. Contact Kristee Benedetto to find a shift that is right for you! kristeeb@sbcglobal.net

- COME TO THE MEETINGS.

There are two 'LA EATS' meetings scheduled: one this Friday, April 1 at 9AM, and one the week after Spring Break on Friday, April 29 at 9AM.

- SPREAD THE WORD!

As you talk to other parents, tell them how they can get involved, too. When you receive the emailed invite, do a little PR for the school by forwarding it to your contact list.

If you have any questions, feel free to email me. Can't wait to see you at 'LA EATS'! -Annika
